RIGHT TO ATTEND

In accordance with Article 30 of the Articles of Association and Article 11 of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders Regulation, all company shareholders whose shares are registered under their name in the relevant accounting records five calendar days prior to the General Meeting may attend the General Meeting. To exercise the right to attend, shareholders must obtain an attendance card at least two days prior to the meeting's date, which is issued by the participating entities of Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A. (depository institutions). As an alternative, shareholders may attend using the ready-to-print attendance card found on the Company's website. For their part, the depository entities must send to the Legal Department of ENCE ENERGÍA Y CELULOSA, S.A. (Calle de Beatriz de Bobadilla no. 14, Planta 4ª, 28040 Madrid, Spain) before the date established for the meeting, the list of the cards that they have issued at the request of their respective clients.

Within the above-mentioned time frame, shareholders may also obtain the attendance card at the Company's registered office (Calle de Beatriz de Bobadilla no. 14, Planta 4ª, 28040 Madrid, Spain) by producing a certificate issued by a depository institution proving the registration of their shares in the corresponding book entry records. The attendance card provided by the Company includes the possibility of delegating the shareholder's rights as stated below. As indicated above, health restrictions arising from the COVID-19 pandemic may make it impossible to request or hand-deliver the cards at the Company's registered office. Therefore, we recommend using the electronic means made available to you.

The Board of Directors has approved the contents of the attendance card that is made available to shareholders with the notice of the meeting which includes the rules relating to personal attendance rights, proxy voting, and remote voting.

Registration of attendance cards and voting cards will start at the place where the meeting is planned to be held at 11:30 am and credentials will be accepted until 12:30 pm (the scheduled start of the meeting). To facilitate registration and organisation of the meeting, shareholders are requested to arrive as early as possible. Without prejudice to the above, due to the current health situation caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, please note that there will be capacity restrictions and we recommend that shareholders use the remote assistance means made available to them by the Company.

Remote attendance at the Meeting

In view of the existing health situation and in accordance with Royal Decree Law 34/2020 of 17 November and the Company's internal regulations, the Company's board of directors has approved allowing remote attendance at the meeting, and to offer the possibility of participating in the meeting by any of these means: (i) remote attendance; (ii) proxy granted to the chair of the meeting by remote communication; and (iii) advance voting by remote communication. In addition, members of the Board of Directors may fulfil their attendance obligation by audio or video conference.

In this regard, under the terms set forth in Article 36 bis of the Articles of Association and in the additional provision of the Company's Annual General Meeting of Shareholders Regulations, the means established by the Company's board of directors to implement remote attendance and remote electronic voting during the Meeting are as follows:

1. Prior accreditation: shareholders wishing to attend the Meeting remotely must first register by accessing the corporate website (www.ence.es) and proving their identity on the computer platform provided for this purpose in the manner indicated in the "COMMON RULES" section of this notice. To this end, shareholders must prove their identity on the computer platform by midnight of the day prior to the day the Meeting is scheduled to be held on the first call. A shareholder who is accredited after the established time limit shall be deemed to be absent.

2. Live broadcast: The live broadcast of the meeting will start at 12:30 p.m. on 25 March 2021 on first call or at the same time on 26 March 2021 on second call. The link to follow the real-time webcast of the Meeting will be available on the Company's website (www.ence.es).

3. Participation during the meeting: Shareholders (or their proxies) who, in exercising their rights, wish to speak at the meeting and, if applicable, request information or clarifications regarding the items on the agenda or request clarifications regarding information accessible to the public that the Company has provided to the National Securities Market Commission since the last general meeting was held or regarding the auditor's report, may submit their requests in writing when registering or subsequently while the meeting is being held and up to the start of voting on the proposed motions, provided that their identification as a shareholder has been validated, through the space provided for this purpose on the computer platform. Shareholders who intend to make motions in the cases established by law must submit them in writing at the time of their registration on the computer platform or while the meeting is being held, up to the time when voting on the proposed motions begins. Requests for information or clarification made by remote attendees in the manner indicated in the previous paragraph shall be answered in writing within seven days, without prejudice to the possibility of making requests during the course of the meeting. A remote attendee who wishes to have their participation recorded in the minutes of the meeting must expressly indicate this in the text of the minutes.

4. Voting during the Meeting: Voting on motions relating to items on the agenda during the Meeting of Shareholders may take place as soon as the chair declares the meeting to be validly convened, provided that the identification of the attendee has been validated after registration on the computer platform in accordance with the established procedure. In any event, the remote voting process with respect to all motions submitted to the meeting shall end at the time immediately prior to the announcement of the agreements at the Meeting of Shareholders. Shareholders who send their vote remotely under the terms established in this section will be deemed to have been present for the purposes of establishing the quorum for the meeting. Consequently, delegations previously made by them shall be deemed to have been revoked.

The possible holding of the meeting exclusively by remote means: In order to prioritise the health and safety of the participants in the meeting in all cases, while also guaranteeing all their rights, if the regulations so permit and it is foreseeable that on the date of the meeting the health situation or the measures currently in force under the state of alarm will persist or worsen, or that travel or the possibility of holding face-to-face meetings will be restricted or limited, the Company may determine that the meeting will be held solely by means of remote attendance. In this case, the Company shall make this public through the same means as this notice no later than 19 March 2021, including, if applicable, any specific aspects arising from the Meeting being held exclusively remotely.

RIGHT TO A PROXY

Under Article 31 of the Articles of Association and Article 10 of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders Regulation, any shareholder unable to attend the meeting may be represented by any other person, even if the latter is not a shareholder.

Without prejudice to legal provisions relating to representation by a family member, and the granting of general power of attorney, such a proxy must be nominated in writing and specifically for this meeting. The attendance and proxy card provided by the depositary institution or the Company, which can be found on the Company's website in a ready-to-print form, must be duly completed and signed by the shareholder.

Proxies may also be nominated or notified to the Company by post. The attendance and proxy card provided by the depositary institution or the Company must be duly completed and signed by the shareholder, and sent to the Company's registered office (Calle de Beatriz de Bobadilla no. 14, Planta 4ª, 28040 Madrid, Spain). Any proxy nominated or notified by this method should be received by the Company by midnight before the day immediately preceding the scheduled first call to meeting. Otherwise, the proxy will be deemed invalid and without effect. Any person with delegated voting rights may only exercise them if they physically attend the General Meeting. If the proxy has not been given voting instructions in relation to items not included on the agenda, the proxy may vote in whatever way he/she deems aligned with the interests of the represented party. A proxy can be revoked at any time. The attendance of the represented party will be considered revocation of any delegated powers, regardless of when they were granted.

Shareholders wishing to grant a proxy by electronic means prior to the Meeting of Shareholders being held must access the corporate website (www.ence.es) and prove their identity on the computer platform provided for this purpose, in the manner indicated in the "COMMON RULES" section of this notice.

Duly accredited shareholders must follow the steps specified in the computer platform to grant proxies.

Electronic proxies may only be granted to the chair or secretary of the meeting or to another person who is a director or shareholder of the Company and who attends the meeting remotely. In the latter case, they must be accepted by the representative, failing which they may not be used. For these purposes, the representative shall be deemed to accept the proxy if, on the computer platform provided by the Company on the website, the proxy holder's national identity card or passport or, if applicable, tax identification number, as well as the attendance and proxy card, duly completed by the shareholder, or the power of attorney in the event that general powers of attorney have been granted, are accredited and attached with a scan.

In order to grant a proxy for the chair, directors, or the secretary of the General Meeting, the shareholder must be accredited on the computer platform provided by the Company on the website and attach a scanned copy of their national identity card or passport or, if applicable, TIN number, as well as the attendance and proxy card, duly completed and signed by the shareholder.

To be valid, any proxy nominated or notified by this method should be received by the Company by midnight before the day immediately preceding the scheduled first call to meeting.

ABSENTEE VOTING

Under Article 36 of the Articles of Association and Article 25 of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders Regulation, shareholders who are entitled to attend the General Meeting may issue an absentee vote on the motions in relation to the items on the agenda by sending a duly completed and signed attendance and voting card which has been provided by the depositary institution to the Company's registered office (Calle de Beatriz de Bobadilla no. 14, Planta 4ª, 28040 Madrid, Spain).

If the cards issued by the depositary institutions do not include the possibility of issuing an absentee vote, shareholders with a right to attend the meeting and wishing to issue such a vote by post can obtain the relevant card from the Company's registered office (Calle de Beatriz de Bobadilla no. 14, Planta 4ª, 28040 Madrid, Spain), or find a ready-to-print card on the Company's website. Such a card must be duly completed and signed and sent to the Company at its registered office, along with the attendance card provided by the depositary institution or Company under the terms stated above.

An absentee vote sent by post must be received by the Company by midnight before the day immediately preceding the scheduled first call to meeting. Otherwise the vote will not be valid and will be deemed as not having been cast.

Shareholders with a right to attend who issue a vote under the terms stated above will be deemed present for the purposes of quorum and, as a result, any delegated powers granted beforehand will be deemed revoked and any granted afterwards will be invalid. A postal vote may be cancelled by: (i) its subsequent express revocation using the same method and abiding by the same deadline for the original vote, (ii) by the physical attendance at the meeting of the shareholder who issued it, or (iii) by the conveyance of the shares through which the shareholder held the right to vote, as long as the Company has been informed of this beforehand.

Shareholders wishing to cast their vote by electronic means prior to the Meeting must access the corporate website (www.ence.es) and prove their identity on the computer platform provided for this purpose in the manner indicated in the "COMMON RULES" section of this notice.

In accordance with the established deadline and procedure, duly accredited shareholders must follow the steps specified on the computer platform for casting an electronic vote.

To be valid, an absentee vote sent by post must be received by the Company by midnight before the day immediately preceding the scheduled first call to meeting.

Due to the current health situation caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, we recommend that shareholders use the remote voting facilities made available to them by the Company.

COMMON RULES FOR SHAREHOLDER OR PROXY ACCREDITATION BY REMOTE MEANS

Shareholders wishing to grant a proxy, vote prior to the meeting, or attend the meeting remotely must prove their identity on the computer platform by midnight on the day prior to the date scheduled for the meeting on first call by any of the following means: (i) the Electronic National Identity Document or (ii) a recognised, valid, and current electronic user certificate in accordance with the provisions in Law 59/2003, of 19 December, on the Electronic Signature, and issued by the Spanish Public Certification Authority (CERES), or (iii) by attaching to the electronic platform, in the manner indicated therein, a scanned copy of the national ID document or passport or TIN (in the case of legal entities), as well as the scanned attendance and proxy card, duly completed and signed by the shareholder. In the latter case, once the accreditation has been validated by the Company, the duly accredited shareholder will receive a user number and password to access the computer platform.

Remote proxy, vote, or attendance shall only be deemed valid if shareholder status is confirmed, proving that the ownership and number of shares held by each party attending remotely or issuing their proxy or vote by remote communication coincide with the data provided by Iberclear. Shareholders bear sole responsibility for storing access passwords and using the electronic proxy and voting service. The Company reserves the right to request from shareholders such additional means of identification as it deems necessary to verify their status as shareholders and to guarantee the authenticity of the remote vote, proxy, or attendance.

The Company reserves the right to check the information provided by each shareholder against the information provided by Iberclear, the entity responsible for the accounting registration of the Company's shares. In the event of a discrepancy between the number of shares communicated by a shareholder who issues their proxy or vote by electronic communication or through the cards made available to them on the corporate website (www.ence.es) and what is recorded in the book entry registers communicated by Iberclear, only the number of shares recorded in the Iberclear Register shall be deemed valid for quorum and voting purposes.

In accordance with Article 539.2 of the Capital Companies Act, the Company will provide an online forum on its website from the date this notice is published. Shareholders and duly formed voluntary associations registered in the specific registry of the National Securities Market Commission may access this forum.
