To this end, shareholders must prove their identity on the computer platform by midnight of the day prior to the day the Meeting is scheduled to be held. A shareholder who is accredited after the established time limit shall be deemed to be absent.

to the public that the Company has provided to the National Securities Market Commission since the last general meeting was held or regarding the auditor's report, may submit their requests in writing when registering or subsequently while the meeting is being held and up to the start of voting on the proposed motions, provided that their identification as a shareholder has been validated, through the space provided for this purpose on the computer platform. Shareholders who intend to make motions in the cases established by law must submit them in writing at the time of their registration on the computer platform or while the meeting is being held, up to the time when voting on the proposed motions begins. Requests for information or clarification made by remote attendees in the manner indicated in the previous paragraph shall be answered in writing within seven days, without prejudice to the possibility of making requests during the course of the meeting. A remote attendee who wishes to have their participation recorded in the minutes of the meeting must expressly indicate this in the text of the minutes.

4. Voting during the Meeting: Voting on motions relating to items on the agenda during the Meeting of Shareholders may take place as soon as the chair declares the meeting to be validly convened, provided that the identification of the attendee has been validated after registration on the computer platform in accordance with the established procedure. In any event, the remote voting process with respect to all motions submitted to the meeting shall end at the time immediately prior to the announcement of the agreements at the Meeting of Shareholders. Shareholders who send their vote remotely under the terms established in this section will be deemed to have been present for the purposes of establishing the quorum for the meeting. Consequently, delegations previously made by them shall be deemed to have been revoked.

RIGHT TO A PROXY

Under Article 27 of the Articles of Association and Article 10 of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders Regulation of the Company, any shareholder unable to attend the meeting may be represented by any other person, even if the latter is not a shareholder.

Without prejudice to legal provisions relating to representation by a family member, and the granting of general power of attorney, such a proxy must be nominated in writing and specifically for this meeting. The attendance and proxy card provided by the depository institution or the Company, which can be found on the Company's website in a ready-to-print form, must be duly completed and signed by the shareholder.

The proxy granted or notified by post must be received by the Company at its registered office (Calle de Estébanez Calderón, 3-5, Planta 2ª, 28020 Madrid Spain) no later than midnight on the third business day prior to the day on which the Meeting is scheduled to be held on first call, with business days being understood to be Monday to Friday that are not public holidays in the municipality of the registered office. Otherwise, the proxy will be deemed invalid and without effect. Any person with delegated voting rights may only exercise them if they physically attend the General Meeting. If the proxy has not been given voting instructions in relation to items not included on the agenda, the proxy may vote in whatever way he/she deems aligned with the interests of the represented party. A proxy can be revoked at any time. The attendance of the represented party, whether in person, by electronic means or by absentee voting, will be considered revocation of any delegated powers regardless of when they were granted.

Shareholders wishing to grant a proxy by electronic means prior to the Meeting of Shareholders being held must access the corporate website (www.ence.es) and prove their identity on the computer platform provided for this purpose, in the manner indicated in the "COMMON RULES" section of this notice.

Duly accredited shareholders must follow the steps specified on the computer platform, following the procedure established there to grant proxies.

To be valid, the proxy granted or notified by this means must be received by the Company no later than midnight on the third business day prior to the day on which the Meeting is scheduled to be held on first call, with business days being understood to be Monday to Friday that are not public holidays in the municipality of the registered office.

ABSENTEE BALLOT PRIOR TO THE GENERAL MEETING

Under Article 31 of the Articles of Association and Article 25 of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders Regulation, shareholders who are entitled to attend the General Meeting may issue an absentee vote on the motions related with the items on the agenda by sending a duly completed and signed attendance and voting card which has been provided by the depositary institution to the Company's registered office (Calle de Estébanez Calderón, 3-5, Planta 2ª, 28020 Madrid, Spain).

If the cards issued by the depositary institutions do not include the possibility of issuing an absentee vote, shareholders with a right to attend the meeting and wishing to issue such a vote by post can obtain the relevant card from the Company's registered office (Calle de Estébanez Calderón, 3-5, Planta 2ª, 28020 Madrid, Spain), or find a ready-to-print card on the Company's website. Such a card must be duly completed and signed and sent to the Company at its registered office, along with the attendance card provided by the depositary institution or Company under the terms stated above.

Votes cast by postal correspondence must be received by the Company no later than midnight on the third business day prior to the day on which the Meeting is scheduled to be held on first call, with business days being understood to be Monday to Friday that are not public holidays in the municipality of the registered office. Otherwise the vote will not be valid and will be deemed as not having been cast.

Shareholders with a right to attend who issue a vote under the terms stated above will be deemed present for the purposes of quorum and, as a result, any delegated powers granted beforehand will be deemed revoked and any granted afterwards will be invalid. A postal vote may be cancelled by: (i) its subsequent express revocation using the same method and abiding by the same deadline for the original vote, (ii) by the physical attendance at the meeting of the shareholder who issued it, or (iii) by the conveyance of the shares through which the shareholder held the right to vote, as long as the Company has been informed of this beforehand.

Shareholders wishing to cast their vote by electronic means prior to the Meeting must access the corporate website (www.ence.es) and prove their identity on the computer platform provided for this purpose in the manner indicated in the "COMMON RULES" section of this notice.

In accordance with the established deadline and procedure, duly accredited shareholders must follow the steps specified on the computer platform for casting an electronic vote.

In order to be valid, votes cast by this means must be received by the Company no later than midnight on the third business day prior to the day on which the Meeting is scheduled to be held on first call, with business days being understood to be Monday to Friday that are not public holidays in the municipality of the registered office.

COMMON RULES FOR SHAREHOLDER OR PROXY ACCREDITATION BY REMOTE MEANS

Shareholders wishing to attend by electronic means must prove their identity on the computer platform no later than midnight before the day on which the meeting is scheduled to be held, while shareholders wishing to appoint proxies or vote prior to the meeting must prove their identity on the computer platform no later than midnight on the third business day prior to the day on which the meeting is scheduled to be held on first call, with business days being understood to be Monday to Friday, excluding public holidays, in the municipality of the registered office. These procedures shall be carried out by any of the following means: (i) the Electronic National Identity Document or (ii) a recognised, valid, and current electronic user certificate in accordance with the provisions in Law 6/2020, of November 11, regulating certain aspects of electronic trust services, and issued by the Spanish Public Certification Authority (CERES), or (iii) by attaching to the electronic platform, in the manner indicated therein, a scanned copy of the national ID document or passport or TIN (in the case of legal entities), as well as the scanned attendance and proxy card, duly completed and signed by the shareholder. In the latter case, once the accreditation has been validated by the Company, the duly accredited shareholder will receive a user number and password to access the computer platform.

Remote proxy, vote, or attendance shall only be deemed valid if shareholder status is confirmed, proving that the ownership and number of shares held by each party attending remotely or issuing their proxy or vote by remote communication coincide with the data provided by Iberclear. Shareholders bear sole responsibility for storing access passwords and using the electronic proxy and voting service. The Company reserves the right to request from shareholders such additional means of identification as it deems necessary to verify their status as shareholders and to guarantee the authenticity of the remote vote, proxy, or attendance.

The Company reserves the right to check the information provided by each shareholder against the information provided by Iberclear, the entity responsible for the accounting registration of the Company's shares. In the event of a discrepancy between the number of shares communicated by a shareholder who issues their proxy or vote by electronic communication or through the cards made available to them on the corporate website (www.ence.es) and what is recorded in the book entry registers communicated by Iberclear, only the number of shares recorded in the Iberclear Register shall be deemed valid for quorum and voting purposes.
